11. [] LIAISON Paul Fridenberg, a professor at Tulane University serving a six month stint in the office of Senator Bennett Johnston (D., La.), called for unclassified information on Israeli defense and economic needs and I provided him the names of several publications which would be available from the Library of Congress and he was most appreciative.

12. [] LIAISON Called Allison Brenner, Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee staff, concerning interest in a staff interview of Mr. Thomas Polgar in connection with the Subcommittee's investigation into the final days of Vietnam. I told her that Mr. Polgar was out of the country but if she could more specifically identify their interest we would be able to provide a substitute. The Subcommittee is planning a hearing on 26 January with Ambassador Graham Martin involving the plans for evacuation, the United States' role and that of the various Federal agencies in the closing days, the planning for the evacuation of American and Vietnamese citizens, inter-Governmental decision making, early evacuation by certain Federal agencies, the general assessment of the last days, and the reasons for holding the Americans there until the end. I told Brenner that I would do what we could and be back in touch.

13. [] BRIEFING Called Kempton Jenkins, Congressional Relations, State Department, to determine if Secretary Kissinger had agreed to appear before the Subcommittee on African Affairs, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and was informed that in a conversation between Secretary Kissinger, Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa) and Assistant Secretary for African Affairs, William E. Schaefe, Jr., postponement of the hearing was discussed so that the Secretary could participate.

14. [] LEGISLATION David Allen, Legislative Assistant to Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D., Texas), called and we discussed at some length the absence of laws deterring the publication of names of CIA employees and the legal requirements for such a law. Senator Bentsen is considering introducing such legislation.

15. [] LIAISON Les Janla, NSC staff, called for General Brent Scowcroft, and I said we would send to him, as soon as it was drawn together, a package on the legal alternatives for aid to Derwinski (R., Ill.), and Margaret Heckler (R., Mass.) FBIS items in which their names were mentioned.

X1 2. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON Stopped at the office of Representative Keith G. Sebelius (R., Kansas) and met with Mel Thompson, the Congressman's Administrative Assistant, to discuss details about a visit by students of Sterling College, Sterling, Kansas, to Headquarters on 22 January at 10:00 a.m. I also provided him with a map showing directions to the Headquarters building. Thompson said the group was most appreciative of the Agency making a speaker available. [] Coordinator of Academic Affairs, has been advised.

X1 3. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON Met with Joyce Sams, on the staff of Representative Delbert L. Latta (R., Ohio), to discuss details about a group of students from Defiance College, Defiance, Ohio, who will visit the Agency at 10:00 a.m. on 22 January. I provided her with a map showing directions to the Headquarters building. [] 25X1
[] Coordinator of Academic Affairs, has been advised.

X1 4. (Internal Use Only - RJK) ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES
Per arrangements made by [] delivered a package of transcripts of Agency briefings to Jack Brady, on the staff of the House International Relations Committee. Representative Leo J. Ryan (D., Calif.) requested an opportunity to review them. Later, when he had completed his review, I picked up the package and returned it to Headquarters. Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff of the Committee, was advised and approved of this procedure.

10. [] LIAISON Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee staff, called to ask for the return of all transcripts of Section 662 briefings for Representative Leo Ryan (D., Calif.) to review at 2:00 p.m. today. I told Brady we would get the transcripts up to him.

11. [] LIAISON Called Jim Oliver, OMB, to alert him that the Director was going to call James Lynn, Director, OMB, on the release of our intelligence sources and methods package.

12. [] LIAISON Frank Sullivan, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, called requesting an update on Soviet spending and manpower and I explained that we were pulling together a comprehensive paper on dollar/ruble comparisons, that manpower would be a part of it, but it will not be finished until March. I said we recognized that this may not be timely for Committee purposes and we were seeing what we can do to speed it up without sacrificing quality.

13. [] LIAISON David Allen, Legislative Assistant to Senator Lloyd Bentsen (D., Texas), called and we further discussed legislation on the publication of the identity of CIA employees.

14. [] LIAISON Called Jack Ticer, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, on the timing of Ambassador Bush's confirmation. Ticer said because of the press of other business it looks as though the Senate vote most likely will not occur before the week of 2 February, but they are hopeful it will occur before Congress recesses on 6 February.

15. [] LEGISLATION Called Jim Oliver, OMB, and further discussed the points he had raised on the intelligence sources and methods proposal.

16. [] HEARING Bruce Van Voorst, on the staff of Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa), called saying they believe Secretary Kissinger will appear before the Subcommittee on African Affairs, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, around the 26th of January, but Van Voorst will let us know definitely.

11. [] LEGISLATION [] and I met with 25X1 Vince Morelli, in the office of Representative Jack Kemp (R., N. Y.), to discuss the question of congressional oversight. Representative Kemp originally planned to introduce an oversight bill of his own at the beginning of the Second Session, but apparently now is waiting to see the outcome of the Administration/ Senate Select Committee negotiations regarding oversight. We relayed our chief concerns regarding oversight, and Morelli, although understanding, responded with some traditional congressional viewpoints.

X1 1. [REDACTED] AGENCY VISIT Spoke with Ms. Manaro, appointment secretary to Representative Robert Giaimo (D., Conn.), to determine the Congressman's interest in visiting the Agency for a breakfast/briefing. I mentioned this was an outgrowth of a conversation that the Congressman had with [REDACTED] of the Agency. She is checking against the date of 21 January. 25X1

X1 2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Don Henderson, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, and informed him that we had located a copy of former Chairman J. W. Fulbright's (D., Ark.) 20 February 1967 letter to the Director on association with educational institutions and I was sending him a copy of that letter and a blind memorandum which was used by our people in a meeting with Chairman Fulbright on 8 March 1967 to close the matter out. Henderson will give me a call if there are any further questions on this which was pulled together at his request for use by Bill Bader, Senate Select Committee staff.

X1 3. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Called Allison Brenner, Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee staff, and told her that [REDACTED] NIO/SEA, would be available to brief her and Mike Van Dusen, also of the Subcommittee staff, at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, 20 January on the final days of Vietnam. Mr. [REDACTED] has been advised.

X1 4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Mike Van Dusen, Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee staff, advised that he understood that a new study had been prepared by the Agency on Israeli defense and economic needs and asked if it would be possible to either review it or be briefed on it when they find time. I said I am sure we could arrange a briefing. [REDACTED] OCL, has been advised. 25X1

6. (Internal Use Only - RJK) LIAISON Spoke with Nancy Carmin, on the staff of the House International Relations Committee, who said that she would like three copies of the open portion of the 9 December 1975 briefing of the Oversight Committee, which I delivered to her later in the morning.

7. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON Received a call from Joyce Sams, on the staff of Representative Delbert L. Latta (R., Ohio), who said that unfortunately the group from Defiance College would be returning to Ohio earlier than expected and would not be able to visit the Agency on 22 January for a briefing as planned. She expressed appreciation for our assistance and I said that should the group still be present on the 22nd for some reason the invitation was still open.

8. (Unclassified - RJK) LIAISON Received a call from M. Liebes, on the staff of Representative John Burton (D., Calif.), who requested that the Congressman be placed on the subscription list for the FBIS Daily Report for the People's Republic of China. I called FBIS Liaison and made the necessary arrangements.

9. (Unclassified - WPB) LIAISON Gary Russell, of Senator Robert Griffin's (R., Mich.) staff, called asking for the Director's public statement on allegations that the KGB had infiltrated Capitol Hill offices. I told him that the Agency's position is that the matter is one for the FBI. I said that I did not know of any public statement the Director made on this subject, but that if he did make a statement, it was along these lines. This seemed to satisfy him.

10. (Unclassified - WPB) CONSTITUENT Dana Ellingen, Library of Congress, called in connection with a constituent's request to a Congressman's office. The constituent was interested in obtaining a copy of a "Study of Climatological Research," which is mentioned in the unclassified publication, "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population..." After checking with ORD, I told Ellingen that it was a classified publication, and he said he would let the Congressman know.

11. (Unclassified - WPB) LEGISLATION Called John Childers, Senate Government Operations Committee staff, to discuss S. 2170, the Congressional Right to Information Act. He had written to Mr. Cary asking for our views on this bill. I outlined our problems with the bill for him and offered to send him a copy of our report on the bill, which he had not seen. He said he would appreciate that.

1. [] LIAISON I met with Representative Dale Milford (D., Texas) to discuss his recent trip to the Far East and the Administration proposals for the protection of classified information. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

2. [] BRIEFING I accompanied [] to a meeting with Mike Van Dusen, on the staff of the Special Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee, and Allison Brenner, also on the staff of the Subcommittee. The purpose of the meeting was to go over the chain of events in the last days of the war in Vietnam. Van Dusen said that Ambassador Graham Martin was to appear before the Subcommittee on 27 January and that he wanted to make sure that the areas the Subcommittee would touch on would not create any additional problems for the Agency regarding information which had not been placed officially in the public domain. There were some follow-up questions which [] will prepare answers to.

3. [] HEARINGS Called Captain John Matheny, on the NSC staff, at the request of Walt Elder, of the Review Staff. Matheny asked about the upcoming Senate Government Operations Committee hearings on congressional oversight, and I supplied him the information he needed.

4. [] HEARINGS Called Paul Hoff, Senate Government Operations Committee staff, regarding final arrangements for the Director's statement this Friday on congressional oversight.

5. [] HEARINGS Called Chuck Meissner, on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, regarding the upcoming hearings on congressional oversight. Meissner has been assisting John Childers, Minority Counsel to the Senate Government Operations Committee, on this matter, and he referred me to Childers.

6. [] LIAISON Jim George, of Senator William Brock's (R., Tenn.) staff, called and asked for [] telephone number which I gave him.

X1 1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Mike Van Dusen, Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee staff, called to express their appreciation for the fine briefing provided by [REDACTED] yesterday on the final days in Vietnam. He said there were a few outstanding questions for follow-up but he thought they would not pose us any problem. 25X1

X1 2. [REDACTED] LIAISON Fred Ruth, Legislative Assistant to Senator Dewey Bartlett (R., Okla.), called and we discussed a number of items related to Senator Bartlett's proposed statements on Angola, and our efforts in support of freedom and democracy to offset Soviet efforts. Senator Bartlett is also thinking of traveling to Angola and a briefing in this connection has been arranged for him tomorrow at 4:00 p.m. [REDACTED] OCI, has been advised. 25X1

X1 3. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Charles Mitchell, Executive Secretary to Senator James Allen (D., Ala.), called for further discussions concerning oversight legislation hearings before the Senate Government Operations Committee.

X1 4. [REDACTED] Charles Snodgrass, Defense Subcommittee, House Appropriations Committee staff, called for a listing, by title, of the distribution of the National Intelligence Daily. He said he needed this this afternoon since he intends to raise a question with the Director on why the relatively small distribution in the Congress raises a security problem in light of the much wider distribution in the Executive Branch.

20. [] Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, called and said Chairman John McClellan (D., Ark.) wants to have the budget hearings the week of 8 March 1976. McConnell said the dates 9, 10, and 11 March are open. They want the Director to start the hearings with the intelligence community budget on the morning of the first day, followed that afternoon by Mr. Ellsworth (DOD). The following morning will be Mr. Plummer (DOD), followed in the afternoon by the Director with the Agency budget. McConnell asked that we decide which two consecutive days we want and let him know so they can firm up the schedule. [] is checking Ambassador Bush's calendar and will let us know.
